

Fair News 2023

Belmont Old Home Day Picture This!

Sat. August 12, 2023.

St. Joseph Church parish hall as a cooling /out of the weather station and parking.

Offering ice cream sundaes, face painting and Special preview of "new" craft items for sale.

Our Crafts, Books , Jewelry, Blossom & Bird Garden Center and Silent Auction tables will be open for business.

In preparation for this event we are now accepting donations for these tables. The garden center will be accepting new and good used items for the garden and birds. Don't forget jewelry, books, summer auction items and of course awesome craft items ! We are trying to promote the variety of items we will have, please contact the appropriate table chairman if you have special items you will be donating. Or bring your donations to the parish hall and place in the marked boxes or on the table.

Don't forget to stop by on Aug 12 and check out the:

Book Table: for a good book for summer reading, or puzzle for that rainy day.

Craft table: New craft items including: dog bandanas, wood hauling totes, large tote bags...

Blossom -Bird shop: garden accessories, bird houses and feeders, garden plants...

Jewelry Shop: great jewelry deals

Silent auction items: Looking forward to some great summer gift items, gift certificates and opportunities to learn a new skill or experience! How about, an evening boat ride on Lake Winnisquam! Learning to black smith lessons, Dale Earnhart backpack, 4' x 6' wooden American Flag, hand painted Sunflower wooden stool...
